BARNUM, the great showman, is dead.

A new opera house is being erected in the rustling city of Detroit.

The harbingers of spring—base ball and book beer, are now with us.

Chicago has elected a republican mayor after nearly fifteen years of democratic rule.

The Preste Change came to us this week with the pages reversed and upside down. It is evident that Bro. Drawz has turned things over since he became a partner.

The Motley Register has passed into the hands of C. A. Mackey, and while the present management will make a good local paper of it, the Motley people will miss Mr. Drawz.

The Northern Pacific is to take enough kinks out of its line to decrease its running time between Chicago and Portland fully twenty-four hours. The work will be done this year.

The city charter bill is a go and in that case the election of T. M. Reilly as assessor by the council on Monday last will necessarily be declared off and a vote will be taken for assessor by the people.

"Is the Farmers' Alliance a secret society, and do the members have a password and grip?" asks an exchange. It is certain that they have a grip although Donnelly has lost his since the session of the legislature opened.

If the killing of the alien rioters in Pennsylvania will only cause the foreign powers to raise such a fuss over the matter that the United States will construct laws to prevent all the criminals and paupers of Europe from being imported into this country, a good thing will have been accomplished.

It is more than likely that Senator Hoppe now wishes he had never attempted to regulate newspapers by passing a law compelling every article to be signed by the writer. The senator appears to have absorbed some of Donnelly's nature since the legislature opened.

A PARTY of surveyors, fourteen in number, supposed to be working for the Northern Pacific, were met yesterday two miles west of Aitkin, heading for Grand Rapids, says the Duluth Tribune. It is stated that the Northern Pacific fears the competition that is gradually getting hold of the territory alluded to and is seeking to strengthen its position. The distance from Aitkin to Grand Rapids is comparatively short, but this piece of road would practically give it an air line to St. Paul, and a good hold on the business of that section, which is assuming greater volume every day.

What The Legislature Has Done. Senator Hoppe and Representative Bjorge have each had additions to their families since the legislature opened.—Fergus Falls Journal.

Peck Will Shoot Ducks. The following from Peck's Sun can readily be applied to Minnesota as well and will be appreciated:

I prithee, sweet friends, and why should we be royal suckers any longer? Haven't the ducks sportsmen of Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts and Iowa played horse with us long enough? For these many years we have sat idly in the beautiful spring time kicking ourselves and letting our fowling pieces rust while the marshes and lakes of Indiana and Illinois have overabounded with the crackle of shot guns. All around us the ducks on their northern flight have been peeping unmercifully while the residents of the little spot called Wisconsin have refrained from enjoying the sport. But the time has gone past when we can longer afford to play the part of king chumps. If spring shooting is going to exterminate the wild duck the fact that Wisconsin men refrain from it while all the other states allow it is not going to help matters. To make cessation of spring shooting of any practical value it must be stopped in all the states. Illinois and Indiana have had fair warning and now it is too late. The legislature of this state will see to it that Wisconsin men have an equal show with the men of other states. This may be a selfish doctrine but if other people won't tote square the only way to do is to "come back." A federal game law strictly enforced in all the states is the only remedy. We'll not duck this spring.

Not a Black Maria. The method of getting around in the City of Venice is through the use of small boats called gondolas, and all painted black, the sombre color being maintained through some superstition that dates back several hundred years. These little boats are skillfully maneuvered among the many little islands and through the winding canals of that beautiful city of palaces, transacting the various interest of commerce and carrying the people to the market church or opera. Compare such means of transportation with those afforded in the United States at present, particularly since electric powers have been developed, and you no doubt feel that the days should be long to accomplish much. Wonderful advantages are experienced by the American people—it only taking a few hours now to travel between St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago, St. Louis or Kansas City, or between any two points in a single state. The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway reaches all points in Central Iowa, Central Southern Minnesota, and reaches Watertown, S. D., as well as running through trains to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, etc. Call on any railway agent, or address C. M. Pratt, General Ticket and Passenger Agent, Minneapolis, Minn.

The doctors of the Montreal General Hospital say that Koch's lymph is a failure so far as their experience goes. They have used it for nearly three months, but is has failed to cure in any case and has been given up.

When the young German Emperor publishes the Life of his grandfather, which he is writing, the book reviewers of Germany will see to it that the work is a critical success. The instinct of self-preservation is the strongest of human impulses.

A GERMAN doctor declares that he finds by exhaustive experiments that exercise has no influence upon digestion. But the distressing fact remains that the average man must exercise in order to obtain something to digest.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN doubtless deeply regrets that from war has caused his fellow artist, Edwin Booth, to retire from the stage. Mr. Sullivan himself, however, is not in the pink of condition when time is called on the stage.

DEATH, the arch-destructor, is making havoc in theatrical circles as well as among the shining lights in other professions. Barrett, Mackay and Frayne—all called away from behind the footlights in a single week. This is a great loss to the stage in their different lines of dramatic work.

THE changes that have been brought about in naval warfare are strikingly illustrated in the sale of some men-of-war by command of the Department. Among these is the Brooklyn. She was placed under repair under the gallant Farragut, but is now sold for use as a coal-barge.

CHEWING two or three dandelion leaves before going to bed is said to be a sure cure for insomnia and to leave no bad taste in the mouth. It has been long known that chewing two or three cloves between the acts will keep a man from going to sleep during a dull play. The month, however, should be previously moistened with something worth 15¢ or 25¢.

THE citizens of Galena, Illinois, will unveil their statue of Gen. Grant on Memorial day. The New York Grant statue will doubtless be very popular, telling about the judgment day. Galena does not claim to be a par with New York, but in some particulars New York is not in with the Illinois city.

AN official declaration by Secretary Proctor, according to the Washington Star, decides that the civil war "began April 15th, 1861, and ended August 20th, 1865." This news should be conveyed to the Arkansas Legislature, which has displaced a portrait of Washington for one of Jefferson Davis, evidently under the misimpression that the strife is still raging.

PROVIDENCE has the most enterprising trip on record. He stole the platinum tips from lightning rods on a chimney 250 feet high. Surely one of these towering ambitions as this should be able to achieve great things in this world. No height should stop too lofty for him to scale. We hope he may be caught, although to "send him up," as the saying goes, would be too much like piling Pelion on Ossa. The only punishment for such a one is incarceration in a mine.

A woman in a ladies' journal has a word of encouragement for girls who lament having red hair. The Catholics, who made Russia great, had red hair; so had Maria Theresa, who saved Austria; and made it the Empire that it is; so had Anne of Austria, who ruled France for so long; so had Elizabeth of England and Catherine Borgia, as well as Marie Antoinette, whose blonde tresses had in them a glint of gold.

It is noted that Joe Johnston lived to be an older man than any of the great captains of our civil war, being 84 at the time of his death. Taking the leaders on the confederate side, Lee died at 63, Bragg at 59, Pemberton at 56, Hill at 68, Forrest at 55, and Ewell at 55. On the Union side Sherman died at 70, Grant at 63, Thomas at 54, Sheridan at 47, Meade at 57, McClellan at 53; McDowell at 66, Hooker at 65 and Burnside at 57.

KING OTTO, of Bavaria, is a very merry monarch. His favorite pastime is sitting by the open window on a joyous summer day, and ever and anon, when the happy peasant goes by, Otto lifts his little gun and fires at the happy peasant.

The British have been attacked and carried off by a party of Japanese. The British have been attacked and carried off by a party of Japanese. The British have been attacked and carried off by a party of Japanese.

The little Princess Kailani, who has been designated by Queen Liliuokalani as heiress to the throne of Hawaii is pursuing her education somewhere in England, but it is reported to the public to know just where. The princess must be kept in hiding lest some rival candidate for the throne assassinate her. There are doubtless a great many little girls in very humble circumstances in the world who wouldn't change places with the Princess Kailani.

The old Duke of Devonshire has a levelheaded objection to his son, the Marquis of Hartington, marrying the Duchess of Manchester, and thinks that at their age they ought to know better. Of course the Lord of Chatsworth is looking to the family succession, and knows that with his son at fifty-five and her Grace on the shady side of sixty the chances of their direction are pretty slim. Besides this he is not forgetful of the fact that the marriage will take away from the bride some real estates of which she is well provided and possessed, and that she will come into the Devonshire family a poor woman. But the marriage will go on just as if the Duke was quite content it should do so.

A MINNESOTA ADVENTURE.

The facility afforded highway robbers to escape by the close proximity of the Texas border to Mexico, has made it highly dangerous to travel through the Rio Grande valley.

The Mexicans consider that Texas is unfairly wrested from them, and they rarely lose an opportunity of revenging themselves on Americans.

Blessed, as they are, with an extremely fertile soil, they do not care to cultivate it, not comprehending the dignity of labor. They spend their days in smoking, lounging, plotting and their nights in stealing, or in drumming on the guitar, and singing round-dances to some real or imaginary Dulcinea.

During the War of the Rebellion, Brownsville was occupied by General Bee, who had a company of Mexicans, under Adrian Vidal's command.

These fellows, about two hundred in number, deserted from Bee, and prowled about, with impunity, as the Federal troops were on the point of occupying Brownsville.

At that time, Pierce Randolph, a native of Ohio, and his lovely young wife had just passed from Brownsville to Brown County to dispose of some stock and other property which he owned there.

They proceeded on their journey, without having encountered anything to disturb their felicity, until they arrived at Rancho Santa Rita, where, finding no inmates, they continued on their way for about two leagues, when they heard the stifled sobs of a child and the wailing of an infant.

Alighting from the abundance, they penetrated through the chaparral, and were astonished to behold a lady, with three children; crouching in terror under a large tree, and weeping.

It was Mrs. Barlow, a German lady, of the Jewish faith, and who was well known to the travelers. She was waiting there for a husband, who was missing, and the river, and was utterly prostrated.

Her husband, Jeff Barlow, had been sheltered of Brownsville, but espousing the Federal cause, he had fled, and returned to his ranch at Santa Rita.

Mrs. Barlow's story was truly heart-rending; she stated that early in the morning, Adrian Vidal, the Mexican leader, had come to her, and had asked her to assist him in his nefarious work.

Successful Entertainment.

Pap Thomas Post No. 30, G. A. R., of this city can congratulate themselves on the successful termination of their efforts to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of that order.
The opera house was profusely decorated with the national colors, and was filled to overflowing by patriotic citizens. A line of march was formed in front of the Odd Fellow's hall at 8 o'clock, and the members of the Post, Co. K, 3rd Regt. M. N. G., headed by the Third Regt. Band, marched to the opera house. The exercises, which were very entertaining, opened with music followed by an able speech from Judge Fleming, who also acted as chairman. A drill by twenty young ladies, the same as that produced at the Catholic entertainment, was one of the interesting features. The balance of the programme was as follows:

Reading of general orders by B. S.
Mallory.

Prayer by Rev. G. H. Davis.

Battle songs by scholars from the public school.

Sheridan's Ride, reading by Miss
Avis Winchell.

Battle of Gettysburg, recitation by Earl Mallory.

Recess. White and Blue, song by S. F.
Alderman.

After three rousing cheers and a "tiger," Rev. C. H. Treglawney gave the closing address which was highly appreciated by all present, and the entertainment closed by singing Columbia. It was a grand success.

Death of An Old Resident.

Joseph Perrin died at the Sanitarium in this city on Sunday, April 5,

Deceased was well known in this city,

Northern Pacific road for many years in the capacity of foreman of the wrecking crew. He was a member of the A. O. U. W., which order turned out in a body and accompanied the remains to the train on Tuesday, which were shipped to Sedalia, Mo.
Thomas Perrin, an only son, arrived on Tuesday morning and accompanied the body to its last resting place.

one by Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Alderman last evening. At the first Mrs. J. B.
Douglas and W. A. Fleming carried off the prizes, while last evening Miss Bessie Mulrine and H. I. Cohen were

First Regular Shoot.

The first regular shoot of the Brainerd Gun Club drew out quite a large crowd on Wednesday morning, and although the wind blew a gale, some very good scores were made as follows:

Think Anoka People Unfair.

"A young girl at Anoka claims to have been ruined by associates made while attending Salvation Army meetings in that city, and the authorities have begun an investigation of the affair which, if found as the girl states, will result in the Salvationists being ordered out of that place."

Having read in the Brainerd Dispatch of April 3rd, (above quoted), I wish to say that the tone and tenor of that article is unfair to the Salvation Army, and the logic of it, if completely carried out, is liable to close up any every organizer, secular or religious, which holds public exercises.
There being nothing to prevent any evil-minded person from attending a public gathering if he choose, he may attend any such gathering, and any female attendant on said gathering is liable to innocently make such person's acquaintance. Unless such female be temptation proof, such acquaintance might, through a series of other events, all public clauses, lead to her ruin. Carrying out that logic which is warp and woof of said newspaper article, if such acquaintance chance to be formed at any church with aforesaid result, said church must be "ordered out of the place," if acquaintance was made at a political meeting, political meetings must be suppressed. If said acquaintance perchance begun at a dance by same logic, all public clauses, must be suppressed, and so on ad infinitum. The writer of this comment is not a member of the Salvation Army, and in no way committed to that body, except as a friend to all well-meaning evangelistic efforts, especially those efforts that reach the unreached.

A FRIEND OF FAIR PLAY.

The DISPATCH gave the item only for what it was worth as a matter of news and did not comment on it as the clipping will show. If the people in that city where the alleged occurrence took place choose to regulate matters in the manner stated no one can question the right of any newspaper to publish the fact.

To Ice Consumers.

On account of having to ship ice into the city by cars, which has greatly increased the cost, I am compelled to charge the following rates: Ice by season (25 pounds per day) $12, and more in proportion. Ice by the month, except July and August, $2. Ice for July and August, $3 per month.

PETER WALTERS.

The Sea King.

"The funniest thing that ever came to town." "Finest scenery I ever saw." "If Corinne could draw a full house on her performance, the 'Sea King' is certainly good for a royal flush." These remarks and a score more were heard in the foyer of the theatre last evening between the acts of the "Sea King."—Tacoma News.

Some Spring Building.

From present appearances there will be considerable building going on as soon as spring has opened.
George Gardner has already a crew of workmen clearing his lots on Laurel street from rubbish left by the fire and will be ready to begin the erection of a fine brick block as soon as the grounds are in shape. The block will be 125x50 feet, two stories high and will be brick veneered. The lower floor will be finished off into five stores, and the upper floor into offices and a large hall. The building will be rushed through to completion as soon as possible, most of the material being already on the ground.

Chas. Kinkade has begun work on a brick veneered barn 30x50 feet on his Fifth street property, which was burned over in October. As soon as this building is completed he will erect a market building 50x75 feet, which will also be of brick and will occupy the ground where the old market stood. As soon as the building is finished he will occupy it as a storage house for meats.

Wm. Bredfeld has the brick on the ground for the erection of a two story brick building 25x75 feet on Front street, next to Luken's bazaar. The building will be occupied by Mr.
Bredfeld with his shoe store and factory. The upper story will be occupied as a residence. He expects to begin work on it in two or three weeks. The building will be of solid brick.

Wm. Gergen will rebuild his livery stable on Sixth street south immediately. The new building will be 62x100, the same as the old one. Mr.
Gergen's present quarters are entirely too small, and he is anxious to get the new building up and completed.
Two or three parties are figuring for the contract.

Council Cullings.

The city council was in regular session on Monday evening. Reports from the city clerk, chief of police and superintendent of electric lights were read and accepted. Accounts amounting to several hundred dollars among which was that of the city pay roll $645.70, electric light pay roll $208.35, and Dr. J. L. Camp $50 for setting broken arm of Moss Derocher, were allowed. The bill of A. Mahlum, for building the bridge across the ravine on Laurel street, was laid over to await a report from the city engineer and council as to its being according to specifications in the contract. The city clerk was instructed to notify the Water Company to repair the streets where water mains were laid last year, and if not attended to in ten days the city will repair them and charge against the property.

The superintendent of electric lights was instructed to make repairs and purchase supplies. The following clerks and judges of election were appointed:

First ward—Judges, Wm. Paine, Sr., John Murray and D. Wintersteen.
Clerks—E. W. Wieland and George Wilson.

Second ward—Judges, C. A. Richardson, J. W. Shipp and Edward Shipp. Clerks—C. D. Johnson and Frank Howe.

Third ward—Judges, Robert Sturgeon, Wm. Meekins and John Martin.
Clerks—Chas. Banks and W. W.
Winters.

Fourth ward—Judges, P. G. Fogle-strom, B. Best and M. Peterson.
Clerks—T. H. Murphy and A. Anderson.

Fifth ward—Judges, Thos. Kennedy, John McNorton and A. A.
Graham. Clerks—John Ryan and A.
Lessard.

An informal ballot was taken on city assessor, which resulted in 5 for H. Theviot, 2 for T. Reilly and 1 for Ed. Lynch. On the formal ballot H.
Theviot received 4, and T. Reilly 4.
The third ballot resulted in the election of Mr. Reilly by a vote 5 to 2 for Mr. Theviot, and 1 for D. D. Smith.
Council adjourned.

A Second Term.

At the annual meeting of the Brainerd Fire Department on Monday evening a large turnout was present.
The meeting was called to order, T. J.
Sanborn being elected chairman and C. D. Johnson secretary. Nominations for chief were made, the names of Dan McIntosh and Ed. Brehney being placed before the meeting, but as Mr. Brehney declined to be a candidate a motion was made to elect Mr.
McIntosh by acclamation, which was carried. For first assistant Ed. Breh-ney was elected, and for second assistant S. H. Parker. A. F. Ferris was elected treasurer, and C. D. Johnson secretary.

Wm. Durham has not yet taken charge of the post-office, but expects to be installed in his new position by Monday next.

Judge Holland will hear the arguments in the condemnation proceedings of the Wadena & Park Rapids railroad.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all persons that my wife, Julia Gulnard, has left my bed and board, and that I will pay no debts of her contracting.

PETER GULNARD.

DOGS AS SENTINELS.

The French have a Very Cruel Way of Training the Animals.

Dogs as auxiliaries of the sentinel are coming into the fore, says a Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph. It appears that a kind has been discovered in Toulon which has been converted into a vigilant and fierce sentinel. It is tall and powerfully built. The way it is trained may be expected to elicit the protests of that Animals Guardian of which we announced the other day the forthcoming issue. When those dogs are wanted for military service they are tied up and natives are engaged to beat and otherwise ill-use them. The French soldiers' duty, on the other hand, is to feed them. If then at night they are fastened to a sentry box they naturally give the alarm directly an Ananite or Tonquinoise approaches. They can distinguish the native from the European by the scent though, and are absolutely concealed. About this method of training there seems to be a good deal of unnecessary and cruel legendry.
Our English dog fanciers would probably be willing to undertake the training of sentinel dogs on terms much easier for the dogs themselves.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Sea King.

The latest grand success in the operatic line is certainly the new romantic comedy, "The Sea King," which Mr. William J. Gilmore's mammoth opera company will present at the opera house on Wednesday evening, April 15th. In scenic effects and excellence of costuming and mounting, and in the bright and lively character of its music it is claimed that it will surpass anything of the kind now before the public. It had an unprecedented run at the Palmer Theatre, New York, and for the attention which has been bestowed upon it the present season will undoubtedly rival "Pinafore" and "Mikado" wherever it shall be produced.

It will be given at the opera house in this city, it is promised, with all the wealth of scenery and stage surroundings which characterize its rendition in the metropolis, and in its representation Mr. Gilmore employs the largest and most effective chorus ever organized for such a purpose.
As its title implies, the plot of the opera deals with a personage allied to the sea, a theme that has always been successful on the stage, both in the dramatic and musical lines, and in this instance it has caught the popular fancy far beyond any previous compositions.

The opera will have the assistance of an increased orchestra and a chorus of forty voices, under the direction of Hiram Perlet, and will be given with the following cast:

Don Bamboula.....E. E. Graham

Don Bamboula, his niece.....Ellie Warren

Don Bamboula, a village beauty.....Kate Gilbert

Don Bamboula, an aged woman.....Katie Hill

Don Bamboula, the favorite page.....Mamie Corbin

Don Bamboula, a wealthy soldier.....T. H. Perce

Don Bamboula, captain of the guard.....Frank A. Howard

Don Bamboula, a lieutenant.....George H. Carr

Don Bamboula, a lieutenant.....Joseph Roberts

Don Bamboula, a lieutenant.....Mark Smith

The scene of the opera is laid in Spain and the period of action the latter part of the thirteenth century, affording rare opportunities for beautiful stage pictures and handsome costuming. In the latter direction some decided novelties are promised, and they have all been designed by a well-known artist.

The story is that of Don Bamboula, the ruler of an obscure province who is so ill-favored that none of the court ladies will listen to his suit. A male heir is necessary to preserve the title to his dukedom; he therefore repairs with his retinue to an obscure coasting village in the hope of finding some girl willing to marry him. On this part of the coast there is a legend regarding a fabulous personage known as the Sea King, who is supposed to visit the coast once a year for the purpose of carrying off one of the village girls. The Sea King is in reality the rightful heir to the dukedom, which Don Bamboula has usurped.
The real duke is Mateo de Quevedo, and he maintains an existence by smuggling, and is vested by the peasantry with a supernatural power.
Mateo and his hand visit the coast simultaneously with Don Bamboula and his suit, and the chieftain and Dolores, a niece of Don Bamboula, fall in love with each other, and so the complications begin and are to the close.

There is little question but what the opera will merit all the things said in its favor. It has been introduced modestly and cleverly placed before the public.

Fabio Romani.

Aiden Benedict's Fabio Romani was seen for the first time in New York at the Third Avenue Theatre last night. The piece contains many thrilling situations and displays beautiful scenery, especially in the first and last acts, representing the city of Naples with its magnificent bay. In the last act the same picture is presented with the addition of Mont Vesuvius in active eruption, accompanied by the roar of an earthquake and the crumbling of buildings.
It is, indeed, an effective picture.
With these auxiliaries and a strong cast "Fabio Romani" should prove a money maker for Manager Benedict.
Walter Lawrence in the title role (as Horatio Appleby, he also played Gaspero Fontemole, the fugitive; John Fay Balmer as Guido Ferrari, Geo. C.
Denton as Pietro, and Addie Farwell as Mother Biscardi, were excellent, and did some clever acting, while Frances Field as Nina, the false wife, was as near perfection as possible, without being a reality. One could easily imagine he saw a woman who cared nothing for man's love, but who delighted in the possession of gold and jewels, false as the most captivating siren and over-willing to throw womanly virtue to the winds for a lover, capable of gratifying her desire for jewels. Her acting was perfect, and when bereft of her reason in the last act, while in the manseolom of the Romani family, her pleadings were pitiful. This was the first piece of acting during the play, and gave to both Miss Field and Mr. Lawrence an opportunity to display their fullest ability. Miss Field's emotion and Mr. Lawrence's portrayal of a man whose ideal had proved false, and whose sole desire was the worst kind of revenge, called for numerous outbursts of applause.—New York Clipper.

The above troupe will appear at the opera house to-morrow (Saturday) evening, April 11th. Prices 75, 50 and 25 cents.

Successful Entertainment.

Pap Thomas Post No. 30, G. A. R.

efforts to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of that order.

The opera house was profusely decorated with the national colors, and was filled to overflowing with patriotic

o'clock, and the members of the Post,

were very entertaining, opened with

of the interesting features. The balance of the programme was as follows:

Reading of general orders by B. S.

Mallory.

Prayer by Rev. G. H. Davis.

Battle songs by scholars from the public schools.

Avis Winchell.

Battle of Gettysburg, recitation by

Earl Mallory.

Red, White and Blue, song by S. F.

Alderman.

Columbia. It was a grand success.

Death of an Old Resident.

Joseph Perrin died at the Sanitarium in this city on Sunday, April 5, of heart failure, at the age of 55 years.

Deceased was well known in this city, having been in the employ of the

in the capacity of foreman of the

remains to the train on Tuesday,

which were shipped to Sedalia, Mo.

on Tuesday morning and accompanied the body to its last resting place.

For Better or Worse.

On Monday Andrew H. Johnson and Jennie Ewe, both of this city, were married by the Rev. O. J. Wagnild.

Rev. C. H. Treglawney united Chas.

A. Bereman and Eva Williams in marriage on Tuesday April 7th.

Two very pleasant progressive entertainment parties have been given during the past week, one by Dr. and Mrs. Howes on Friday night last, and

last evening. At the first Mrs. J. B.

the lucky ones.

*First Regular Shoot.

Gun Club drew out quite a large

Some Spring Building.

will be considerable building going

on as soon as spring has opened.

soon as possible, most of the material

being already on the ground.

Fifth street property, which was
